Highway Robbery in Indiana. The Shelbyville (Ind.) Banner gives the following recent account of the robbery and almost murder of Mr. Samuel Eoff, a citizen of that place. He had business calling him to visit the south part of this State, and on Wednesday, the 29th ult, he had occasion to go from Newbury, Greene county, to Washington, Davies county. There being no public conveyance—the region he had to pass through being exceedingly barren and thinly settled—he started on his journey, about twenty miles, on Fost. When nearly night he became very hungry and weary, and stopped at a small house and acked permission to stay all right. lle was told that about two miles further on there lived a man who could accommodate him. He proceeded a nont a mile, when two men emerged proceeded about a unic, when two men emerged from the woods, one of whom asked him the time of day, and as Mr. E. was in the act of taking out his watch, the other radian struck him a blow from behind—with a bludgeon he supposes—which knocked him down. They then dragged him harriedly into the woods about fifty yards, and gagged him by tring a large cotton handker-chiet over his mouth, and with his back neganst a small tree panioned his arms and feet firmly to it with cords. They rided his pockets of $100 in money and two watches, and left him.

In a few hours, his limbs becoming too feeble to sustain his body, he sank down almost insensible, in otherwise a most exercitatingly sainful

CURIOUS CASE. - About a year ago one Parmelee was indicted for having robbed a Mr. Dibblee, No. 25 Marray street, of very large quantities of alks, which be sent and sold regularly to a lire in Philadelphia, named Furniss & Co. He forwarded the goods and received payment under the assumed name of Sylvanus Outchout. Though indicted he has never been tried, but has been at liberty on bail from that time to this. It now ap-pears that Dibblee has sued Furniss for $17,000, he value of the goods thus stolen and sold -and most coolness, narrated the whole story of his rob-bery—describing how he obtained admission to the store through the sky-light, how he removed the goods and sent them to Philadelphia, and how he received his pay for them. He entered fully into detail on the whole subject, and made as per-fect and clear a confession up his guilt as could be fect and clear a confession of his guilt as could b desired. His depredations extended over a period of three years, and amounted to not far from $40,000. What his reward for this service is to be is uestion readily suggested by the circumstance

The brig Rufus Soule, formerly of New Orleans, which also fitted out sometime since at Matanzas, was captured on the 11th of October last, off Cape Bengy, on the southwest coast of Africa, by the British steam cruiser Viper. The Rufus Soule had her slave deck fitted, and was to have embarked her living cargo on the night of the day in which she was captured.

tion of Mr. Monsarrat, seconded by Mr. Frank

[From the Washington Union.] Letter from Senator Slidell.

To the Editors of the Thion:

In a note dated the 7th inst., signed by the Ilon.
S. A. Donglas, addressed to the editor of "The States," and published last evening, Mr. Douglas, after quoting the following passage from my published statement of 1sth December last—viz:
"Mr. Douglas has, by authorizing and countenancing anonymous attacks on me, through a Commonwealth vs. Geo. Lutz. Nol. pros.
Commonwealth vs. J. B. Tierkoff. Set for the th inst.

Commonwealth vs. A. R. Coleman. Set for the thinst.

Wise have promptly volunteered to give him'-makes the following remarks: "It is due to make the following remarks remarks remarks remar of the implication in the above paragraph, is not true that I have authorized or con nanced anonymous attacks upon Mr. Slidell

This declaration imposes on me the necessity of showing the grounds on which I made the charge. During my visit to New Orleans in November last, an editor of a paper published there, who is a frlend and partizan of Mr. Douglus, (but who at the same time is not unfriendly to me,) informed me that he had received me appears. formed me that he had received an anonymous letter from Chicago for publication in his paper, commenting very severely upon me, and that he did not intend to publish it, but desired me to see it. He accordingly produced the paper, and read to me certain portions of it extremely vituperative. I told him that I had heard enough of it and intold him that I had heard enough of it, and in sisted on knowing the name of the author, and how the paper had been forwarded to him. To this he at first demurred, but on my urgent insistance that I had the right to know the name of the author. he said that it had been sent to him in the ordin ry form of newspaper correspondence, either with-out signature or with an assumed one, and had been accompanied by a letter from Mr. James R. Sher idan. I requested him to give me the name in writing, which he did. I have it now in my 1003-session. I had heard that this Mr. Sheridan acted as amanuensis for Mr. Douglas, had accompa-uied him through his late canvass, reported his speeches, etc., and I also asked the editor whether Mr. Sheridan did not stand in this relation to Mr. onglas. His reply was that he so understood aving had other letters from him. I then do clared to the editor in the presence of anothe person, and subsequently repeated the declaration of other friends, that on my arrival in Washim ton, where I expected, of course, to need Mr. Doughs, I should call on him for a categorical reply, whether or not he had authorized this letter of his secretary, and should be governed in iv course towards him by his answer

As soon as I heard of the charge about the ne-groes, and before my departure on the 20th No-cember last) from New Orleans for Washington, I had written to Mr. McHatton, in whose possession the slaves were, denying in the most unqual-tied terms the statement attributed to use by the Chicago Press and Tribune. Mr. Douglas arrived in New Orleans on the 1st or 2d December, saw both the editor above alluded to and Mr. McHatton, and could not have failed to know from them that I had denied having made any such statement about the negroes as had been falsely attributed He must also have known from the edit that I believed Sheridan's letter to have bee countenanced, if not authorized, by him, an that my conviction on this point had been strengthened by the fact of the editor's baving received letters bearing the frank of Mr. Doug as, thus, as I thought, connecting him direct y with Sheridau's letter; yet Mr. Doughas made no communication to me, nor disclaimed in any manner having countenanced the anouvmous attack. Nay, there is a paragraph in his card of yesterday which fairly admits the construction that he had denounced me in Chicago as a caluntniator, on the authority of a statement imputed to Dr. Bruinard, without ever calling on him to learn whether there was any foundation for his charge, when the event proves that Dr. Brainard, if called upon, would have shown the wholes.ory to be a fabrication. It seems to me that a sense of the common courtesies of life, and of our position as Senators, should have dictated the propriety of calling on me either to dony the statement or to vindleate its truth; yet it never courred to Mr. Douglas to suzgest even n doubt of my having been capable of originating sigh a

It was not until the 15th or 16th of December that I heard, for the first time, that Dr. Brainard's name had been cited as authority for the statement imputed to me. Two weeks had elapsed since Mr. Douglas had arrived in New Orleans and been apprised of the ci enustances above de-tailed, of my denial of the truth of the state-ment, and of my conviction that he countenanced Sheridau's letter. I had received from him . o ealumny in Chicago, so far as connected with my name, nothing to indicate the slightest desire to undeceive me, if I had, indeed, been deserved in relation to the letter of his secretary, and I had no opportunity of calling on him for the letter of the secretary. f these facts, that I made the public of in of the ow the official proceedings of the State Demo-ratic Convention, which assembled at Frankfort in the 8th inst. We have never before seen toether so large and enthusiastic a representative seemblage of the freemen of Kentucky, nor wit-lessed in any deliberative body agreater degree of harmony than characterized its action. No one who had an opportunity of observing the resolute determination and indexible earnestness of the Democracy assembled on that occasion, can oubt the triumphant success of our ticket at th heatureky. It is true, that we were disappointed in the hope fondly cherished by our country, and by his hosts of friends throughout the State, of elevating our distinguished county man, Capt. Simms, to the second office in the gift of the peoble of Kentucky; but we are gratified to know hat he won, in the estimation of all true mee, nigher honor than any office could confer, by the magnanimity with which he yielded a position which was within his grasp to place upon the ticket that veteran and true-hearted statesman, Hon. THE BURDELL ESTATE A PREY TO THE LAWYERS.—The estate of the late Dr. Burdell, of New York, is likely to prove of little benefit to any one but the lawyers. On the 18th of December last the Surrogate granted an order allowing to George T. Bulen and S. J. Tilden, some $2,500 counsel feer, assertions and december of the Burney and S. J. Tilden, some $2,500 counsel feer, as a service and country of the Burney and S. J. Tilden, some $2,500 counsel feer, as a service and country of the Burney Bulen and S. J. Tilden, some $2,500 counsel fees, for services rendered in the settlement of the Burdell estate, and a further sum of about $1,100, charged for making a short-hand report of the proceedings before the Surrogate. The Surrogate ordered the money to be paid from the personal property of the estate. Mesars. Bulen and Tilden now allege that large sums have been paid out to the other counsel employed, and that there is now not enough personal property to pay the above allowances. They have therefore inoved for a new order, based on the order of the Surrogate, authorizing the payment of these sums to be made from the moneys derived from aales which have been made of real estate. The motion is resisted from the moneys derived from sales which have been made of real estate. The motion is resisted by the administrator and several of the heirs, on the grounds that the Surrogate had no jurisdic-tion to make the order in the first instance; that the counsel fees and charges allowed were exorbitant, and also bring forward several legal object tions. The matter has not yet been decided.

HANDSOMELY DONE.—"The Sons of Malta" manifested their charity in this city on New Year's day in a very handsome manner indeed, and we intended speaking of it at the time, but through some inadvertance failed to do so. It is never too late though to tell of the good that men do, and we, therefore, take pleasure in informing the public now of the generous manner in which the members of that order remembered the orthe members of that order remembered the orphan and the widow on the occasion alluded to. Fifty sacks of flour, as many packages of sagar, and coffee, and tea, and other necessaries, were placed by them on drays and taken around to the widows in this city in need of such things, and distributed in proportion as the necessities of different cases demanded, and in some instances where clothing or fuel was also needed, they freely gave money to buy those articles also. Truly a good deed, and one that is well calculated to leave a kindly impress on the memory of all who appreciate that highest of Christian virtues—charity.—Mayseille Eugle.

The Various National Railroad Schemes. The good people of the Union are determined 1) have a railroad to the Pacific ocean. Everybody is tatking about such an enterprise, and no less than a dozen schemes for its accomplishment are now before Congress. Out of the whole list upon paper we have an abiding faith that one will be made upon land. That our readers may know something of the different plans and schemes under way, we subjoin an analysis of those that have been mooted in the halls of Congress, and those that are ready to be presented. They are as fol

The Select Committee's bill fixes San Francisco as the western, and a point on the Missouri river, between the months of the Kansas and Big Sioux, as the east ru terminus, and provides for its construction by Land Grants and Government Bonds Senat r Gwin's bill proposes three Roads and Telegraphs-one starting from Texas, one from Missoari, and one from Minnesota-to be built by Land Grants.

Senator Iverson's project is to invite proposals for one route south of the 26th parallel, which would take it through Texas and New Mexico. Senator Foot's bill runs the route from the Red river of the North (Minnesota) to Puget's Sound in Washington Territory. Theuce it is to run to San Francisco.

Senator Davis' bill provides large grants of alernate sections six miles wide, and a money grant of $10.1 1,000 ca h. Route not specified. Senator Cameron's project is to have a Board of experie cell engineers select the route, and the by bonds re leemable in fifty years, which bonds are finally to be assumed and paid by the respectwe states t' rough which the road runs. a sed by Government loans, which are to be repaul by the proceeds of the sales of the public lands.

Senator Rice's project is to build two roads, one through Texas and one from Minnesota, omitting the central one altogether.

Mr. Phelps' project is to give land grauts to California, Missouri, Lonisiana, Arkansas, Ne braska and Kansus, similar to those given to other States, and to issue 30 years' bonds in aid of the road, which is to have three eastern branches, one rouning to Mississippi and the other two to Mis-

Mr. Santh, of Tennessee, offers a project that the United States shall turn in and help the Texas Southern Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Com pany" extend their line to San Francisco; then to help the "Northern Pacific Railroad Company" to extend the id lind to Puget's Sound; and finally, to help a third Company, not yet organized, to build a line from the Missouri river to the l'aci-

Mr. McKibben, of California, proposes two roads-one to commence north of the 23th paralbl-and the other south of the 86th parallel, both to run to San Francisco, with brauches to l'uget's Sound and San Diego.

A majority of the above named schemes is so worded as to embrace the Southern l'acific route though none of them mentions it in so man words. The selvemers designed to use general and comprehensive language, so as to gather strength for a favorite route from all rivals .-Their plans are regular old Virginia log-rollings, at which all the neighbors are invited to help .-Even a casual examination of the analysis above given, will suggest to any one that if some of these schemes are adopted by Congress, more than one individual concerned in them will make the fortune of a Rothschild. Some of them are the grandest swindles ever concocted in a legislative body, and it would not take many such to bankrupt Uncle Sam, no matter how broad his acres or how rich his treasury.

It is vain, however, to deny the fact that the Southern route is the shortest, the best, the cheapest, the most practicable, and the most honest. It passes through the richest country, and is smiled upon by the fairest sky. And, in addition to these facts, Texas has given this route lands enough and lent it money enough to make one half if not all of the road from the Mississippi river to the l'acific ocean. She has given thi road 8,000,000 acres of land, and proposes tolend it $6,000 in cash for every mile made within ner borders. This grant will make the road from Marshall to El l'aso, a distance of seven hundred and twenty miles, and leave a surplus great enough to connect this link on the East with the Mississippi, and on the West with the Pacific. But suppose that the Texas grant won't make the whole road, what will then be the most necessary for the General Government to do? From Vicksburg, on the Mississippi river, to Marshall, Texas, the air-line distance is 160 miles .-Louisiana will make this link or its equivalent .-Then from Marshall to El Paso on the Rio Grande is 720 miles. Twenty-five miles of this work are completed, fifty more under contract, the whole surveyed, and, as said before, there are $,000,000 acres of land and $6,000 per mile in cash given by the State of Texas to make it. From El Paso to Fort Yuma, on the Colorado, the distance is 480 miles through New Mexico, the Territory of the United States. If the General Government will provide for the making of this link, the whole oad can be made. From Fort Yuma to the Pacific, at St. Diego, is only 160 miles, and to San Francisco only 480. Either, or both of these links, should be made by the State of California. In this way, then, we reach the Pacific by the Government helping to make only 480 out of 2,000 riles of railroad. By what other route, we ask, can BARRE STIFCE; or, The Lock Stitch that is Locked, the Government get so good, so sure, and so cheap a road?

The case is too plain for argument. Any othe rente will cost the Government one hundred milions of dollars, while this need not cost her one half of that snm. In our opinion, too, the Government ought to think a little of the cost when she undertakes a road to the Pacific. Only think of the cost in this country of the great schemes now on hand: . Three routes to the Pacific $300,000,000 Lawrence and Georgia Bay 15,000,000

Lawrence 5,000,000
Chio Falls Canal 5,000,000
Victoria B'ge over St. Lawrence 10,000,000
Latantic Telegraph 2,500,000
Latantic & Pacific Telegraph 1,500,000

sense of every man if this is not the shortest, the cheanest, the best, the speediest, the most honest, and, indeed, the only national way of getting from the Mississippi river to the Pacific ocean by railroad? If a road is made North of this, the Southern owner of slaves can't travel on it with his property, but if this route is adopted, every man in the nation, whether Northern or Southern, will have equal rights thereon.

The Mississippi Repudiated Debt.

The Auditor of Mississippi, a few days ago, paid $100,000 to Mr. Goodman, president of the Central Railroad Company, upon bonds issued for the Planters' Bank many years ago. It will be remembered that these Planters' Bank bonds are a part of the repudiated debt that made the Slate f Mississippi notorious throughout the world .-Our readers must not infer, however, that Missis sippi intended, by this payment, to acknowledge and liquidate her repudiated debt. This $100,000 was only a fine financial scheme of Mr. Goodman in behalf of his railroad. He found out, by looking into the records, that there was a fund in the treasury that could be gotten for his road, and he got it, perhaps, by making European holders of the repudiated bouds subscribe them to his road. We hope he will continue this process, and gather up all the repudiated bonds of the State, and get the State to acknowledge them on condition that they are converted into railroad stock within her borders. It is better to pay them in this way than not at all, and we doubt not that the holders of the repudiated bonds, throughout the world would be glad to convert them into the stock of almost any railroad to be constructed there .-The debt is worthless now, but it might turn out something through the stock conversion.

The above work is so well known to the profession that it is only necessary to aunounce that a new volume is out. The present volume, the 17th, is worthy of its predecessors. Lawyers who have access to all the Reports of all the States, know how valuable the whole series is, to enable them to find the discussion of the courts, and those who have not, will find in the complete United States Digest the only substitute. The publishers of this work have furnished recently to the profession some of the most valuable books to be found in our law libraries. To say nothing of the United States Digest and English Law and Equity Reports, Bishop on Criminal Law is probably the most elegant and philosophical work from the pen of an Americau author since Greenleaf's Evidence; Leading Criminal Cases takes rauk with Frauds is almost indispensible; and Drake on Atalso of Garnishee is well and fully treated, has only to be examined to be approved.

STRYCENINE IN THE ADULTERATION OF ALCOHOLIC Liquors .- Dr. Henry Erni gives the following reasons for the improbable use of stryclinine in the adulteration of alcoholic liquors: 1st. Because of its intensely bitter taste, which is apparent even when dissolved in seven hundred thou sand parts of water. 2d. Because of its high cost. 3d. Because it is one of the most dangerous | Courier office. poisons, and one which can easily be detected by chemical test.

Dr. E. says strychnine can not be introduced into malt liquor with hops, because the poison makes, with the tonic acid which the hops always contain, au insoluable compound, which is precip tated. And, moreover, it is not at all probable that strychuine is ever used as a substitute for hops, when there are so many other bitter drugs much cheaper than it. In giving the above synopsis of Dr. Erni's article, to disabuse the public mind of the general belief that strychuine is used in the distillation of liquor, the introduction of other dangerous compounds, such as loccubus, Indian tobacco.etc... Exernment to raise money for its construction by these villatness manufactures of them, is not questioned. Why do not brewers of mult liquor, instead of these more poisonous drugs, introduce Caunabis Iudica, (Indian herrp or hashish.) This Selector Wilson's project locates it between the is a narcotic much in use with the Orientals to Ath and the prailed of latitude, leaving five on- produce intoxication. It induces the wildest halgineers to determine the route: the funds to be | lucinations, and the subject of the dreamy intoxication never loses his identity. Nor has any fata result ever been known from its use.

The Cuba Question in Spain. The Madrid Peniusular correspondent says: "The news which the electric telegraph has rought concerning the message of the President the United States has produced a great sensaon the United States has produced a great sensa-tion in this city, and has already been commented on by the dully journals in a tone of offended na tional pride, which might naturally be expected." The Discusserts that the declaration of Mr. Buchanan provokes laughter rather than anger, and says that if he endeavors to make hinself the apostle of the infamous American busterism, it will probably cost him as dear as t has done all those who have tried to realize their rediculous schemes. As to buying the Span-ish Antilles, it says that only a man who knows othing of Spain and Spaniards could mention such an absurdity.

The Monarquia considers President Buchanan's nessage more election clap-trap, and a continua-ion of that which he made at Ostend to obtain or himself partisans for the Presidency, bu thinks that some other Democrat may outbid him and that they may lead to serious complications. It believes, that more fillibustering expeditions will be conniced at, but it argues that if the little will be combited at, but it argues that if the little republic of Costa Rica was able to defeat Walker, who took over to Nicaragua a much larger force than any likely to go to Cuba, little fear need be entertained about Cuba, garrisoned by the flower of the Spanish army, and provided with a flotilla large enough to cut off all supplies. The Monarquia concludes with the following piece of line writing, which expressed, however, the national riting, which expressed, however, the national

"Are there still in Spain men who believe that the United States are able to snatch Cuba from us? Our national pride rebels against such an idea. The nation which first planted the Cross on the American continent, which overthrew empires and then gave them her civilization and her laws, which still wares her designs stead her.

On AND AFTER MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20th, 1868. which still waves her glorious standard over the splendid beauty of the Antilles, can never believe that day will come when the Apalachian vulture will pounce on Cuba. Spain would con-quer or die, before she permitted such a catasphe, and would, even upon burning rivins, wave till the last the standard of old Spain-a standard which may perhaps be torn by the ar-tillery of those mercenaries, without God and without law, but which, till the last, will be resplendent with majesty and glory."

CITY OF KEOKUK REPUDIATION .- In a circular issued by the city of Keckuk, lowa, a proposition s made that savors very strongly of repudiation. The total debt of the city is $1,550,000, of which $500,000 was incurred in aid of railroads. It is now proposed to reduce the liability one half, or to $500,000, for which compromise bonds will be issued to bear only 6 per cent in lieu of bonds originally issued at 8 per cent.—the railroad stocks be turned over to creditors—in settlement of the be turned over to creditors, in settlement of the balance. A conference with the creditors will be held in New York, from the 20th to 30th of Jan uary, when authorized representatives of the city will be there.

HULSHIZER, Doylestown, I'a., June 1853, says: "My wife has been afflicted with nervous debility since September, 1851, since which time I have been unable to find any physi-cian or medicine that would benefit her in the least until one day I called at the store of Dr. Harve until one day I called at the store of Dr. Harvey, of this town, for some tiucture of iron, and described to him the ufflictions of my wife; he then handed me a lot of papers to read, among which I found one describing Hoofland's German Biters. Hummediately procured a few bottle from him, and am pleased to state that the use of the Bitters has done more good than all the medicine she has heretofore taken. I wish you to send me a hulf dozen bottles."

These Bitters are prepared by Dr. C. M. Jack son, 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa, and are sold by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per as Blankets, Cloaks, Shawls, Merinos, Delains, Silks, Cloths and Cassimeres, in fact any thing appertaining to a winter stock, which will be sold at great bargains.

XXXVth CONGRESS-SECOND SESSION Saturday's Proceedings. Washingron, Jan. 15 .- The Senate is not i sion to-day, having adjourned over until Montract for carrying the mails between Bangor and Halifax, N. S., by railroad. The bill extending for seven years the patent to James G. Holmes for improvement in chair for invalids was passed—yeas 180, mays 57.

At the instance of Mr. Stevens, of Ga, the consideration of the motion to commit the French spoliation bill, reported at the last session of the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Uniou, was further postponed till Tuesday two weeks. This does not affect the similar bill passd by the Schate.
The House then proceeded to the consideration

On motion of Mr. Winslow, of New York, a solution was adopted, calling on the Secretary of the Navy for information generally, concerning navy yards, the object being to facilitate business before the Naval Committee. On notion of Mr. Howard, of Michigan, it was resolved that the Naval Committee report what legislation is necessary to reduce the expenses of the navy, and whether any of the yards and docks

The llouse then went into committee on the bill codity the revenue laws. Mr. Comins, while not approving all the details of the bill, would give it his support on broad national grounds, it being important, not only to the navigating, but all the transporting interests of the control of the support of t

Mr. Giddings gave notice of an amendment to bolish the traffic in slaves, to which this country, by treaty with Great Britain, in 1814, is commit-ed. Will geutlemen countenance the traffic in numan flesh, and involve the nation in the guilt Mr. Smith of Virginia-What do you think of ne coolie trade and French traffic in Africans? Mr. Giddings-I think them as bad as the coastwise slave trade. It was to sell the gentle-man, and wife and children, that I should object. Laughter. Smith suggested whether it would not b s well to comment on the interesting fact that hirty-five vessels in the free States were engaged n the trade, and only five in the Southern States before he undertakes to reform the morals of hi Mr. Giddings-I would as soon lay my hands n a Northern as on a Southern pirate. I am not ectional in my views. [Laughter.] In the course of his remarks he said, it he should be nominated for Governor of Ohio, he wanted to make a straightout issue with the Democratic party. He wished to know from his colleague (Mr. Cox) whether the latter's party was for or against the Mr. Cox rose to par his respects to his col league for a few moments. A crowed gathered around him. He said Mr. Giddings knew that the Democratic members, at a former session voted that it was inexpedient and unjust to restore the African slave trade, and that the Demo-cratic party, North and South, were opposed to it. Mr. Giddings remarked he had alluded to the constwise slave trade. Mr. Cox resumed and said Mr. Giddings had undertaken to show the Democratic party was pro-slavery, when he knew it was neither pro-slavery nor anti-slavery, but placed itself on the slavery nor anti-slavery, but placed used on the doctrine of leaving the people to regulate the matter as they may think proper. He hoped his colleague might be nominated to the Governorship of Ohio, and when the election was over the latter would be left to ponder over the result, and exclaim with Aristides; "I yield to popular oping in overthing even when the people drive me ion in everything, even when the people drive me into exile. [Laughter.] His colleague argued negre equality in his speech the other day, but in his printed speech modified his lauguage. Mr. Giddings remarked his colleague misunder

Mr. Cox-Are you in favor of negroes in Ohio roting? Mr. Giddiugs-I expressed no such opinion. Mr. Cox-Would you permit them to vote?
Mr. Giddings-I would whenever the negroe xeel the Democratic party in intellect and moral virtue. (Excessive langhter.) Mr. Cox.—My colleague does not come up to his doctrine; is he or not in favor of African equality and negro suffrage in Ohio?

Mr. Giddings.—I would put them and Den erats on the same footing-[laughter;] bui I will not interfere in the quarrel between them.

Mr. Cox.—The difference between my age and that of my friend, if I may so call him, will not allow me to put him to the torture, because he cannot be elected Governor of Ohio. In rising all I wished to do was to put the Democrate parly right, and it is right; the gentleman course on with his forces and we will meet him. Mr. Staunton wanted to ask Mr. Cox a question Mr. House objected. The House had had enough of this. Much confusion during the proceedings-everybody evidently interested in the Mr. John Cochrane, in closing the general desate on the bill, said he did not anticipate should embail: on the sea of abolition and slaver discussion, simply on a question of commerce and codification of commercial law. He proceeded to answer objections to and advocated the passag

The committee rose and the House adjourned.

From Washington. Washington, Jan. 15.—The Postmaster General states that under the postage law of 1845, the revenues and expenditures were about equal.—Since the passage of the law of 1850, fixing the present rates, the expenditures have been regularly and largely increasing. These facts obviously suggest that if Congress is determined to nake the department self-sustaining, the sprest means of doing so would be a return to the law of 1845, and establish five ceuts postage for dis-tances under, and ten cents for distances over three thousand miles. Hence he favors the bill introduced in the Senate at a former session.

This, together with the amendments which he has already suggested in regard to the mode of inviting proposals for carrying the mail and the substitution of postage stamps for the franking privilege, would render the department self-susprivilege, would render the department self-sus-taining in what relates to its regular and proper operations. Two sets of service were called into existence in consequence of the uccessities of State-one of the Pacific route, and the other of the great overlend route to California. The former, alter deduction of postage, will cost $376,-556 per annum, and the latter, when the Salt Lake line is added, will cost $500,000, on which there will not probably be sufficient postage re wenue to pay.

Mr. L. L. Dawson, of Texas, late clerk in the Land Office, has been appointed Lieuteaant in subject to draft to be $3,115,000; receipts of the week, $726,000; increase over last week, $52,000; drafts issued, $58,000; drafts paid, $644,000; net drafts issued, $58,000; drafts paid, $614,000; net balance, $1,107,000.

Commander Perry has been ordered to the command of the storeship Relief, soon to leave for Aspinwall. Lieut. Fitzgerald, recently restored to the navy, has been ordered to the same vessel. Lieut. Mercer, dropped as midshipman, and restored as heutenant, has resigned.

The United States Agricultural Society has reelected General Tilghman President, and Vice elected General Tilghman President, and Vice Presidents from every State and Territory. B. B. French is re-elected Treasurer, and Ben Perley Poore Secretary. The Executive Committee for 1850 is as follows: Mcssrs. II. Wagner, of N. Y.; J. McGowan, of Penn.; J. Ware, of Va; F. Smith, of N. II.; J. Merryman, of Md.; H. Capron, of Ill.; and J. M. Cannon, of lowa.

The river at Cincinnati vesterday was rising, as we learn by the officers of the mail boat, and at Pittsburgh it was swelling Saturday, as we see by our dispatches.

The recent wet weather has extended to the region beyond Saint Lonis, and the Mississippi at that point was rising Saturday and tolerably clear of ice. The Missouri at Boonville Friday was also rising, with heavy rains.

lowa Liestled - The U.S. Marshal of Saint Louis has proceeded against the steamer lowa for $17,900, for the sinking of the steamer Madison, Capt. Hercules Carrell, of the huge freighter Maria Denning, arrived in the city yesterday. His boat is coming this way.

EXPORTS BY JOHN RAINE.—The John Raine, hence for New Orleans, passed Cairo Thursday evening, with a good trip of passengers, 388 head of stock, 600 barrels of pork, 70 hygsheads of tobacco, 588 tierces of lard, 240 casks of bacon, 560 currels of flour, and 20) bags of corn, nearly all of which was shipped at points below this city. The Neptune was here yesterday, with 250 cons of railroad iron for Nashville.

THE BURNING OF THE JOSAPHINE SAVAGE. The Berning of the Josaphine Savage.—
The following are the particulars of the loss of this boat, at Tunica Island, in the Mississippi, last Friday week. It appears that the disaster was caused by the carleesness of the crew. We copy the following from the Memphis Bulletin.

The Josephine savage left New Orleans, or rather the salt warehouse up to be, on the 5th last, with a cargo of 2:00 sacks of rath, 120 tous of groceries, and other freight, consigned to Nashville. On Thursday, about 10 o clock, P. M., the boat strock a sang, which ranged up through the larb and wheel, smashing it badly and breaking the two our side flanges. The sang also carried away the water wheel bears and the clamber muld's wash room, and a part of the circle of the wheel.

After the a client, the b at was with difficulty got to the shore, and the work of repairing Immediately set room, and a part of the circle of the wheel.

After the a client, the b at was with difficulty got to the store, and the work of repairing immediately set about. The flanges were so badly broken that it was found necessary to replace them with new ones. At about tweeve o'clock on Thursday night the hands on the boat had competed an iron frame, and covered it with sheet from by the sid of which it was thought the tanges could be burned loose with safety to the boat.—
Fires were then kept burning underneath the flanges untilit was ascerta ned that the welgings had become sufficiently lossned to be revoved. The watchman in about half an hone discovered the boat to be on fire. He immediately gave the alarm, but the flames spread with each rapid by that those on board and barely time to escape with their fives, many having to save themselves by climbing down the guard chains to the main deck.— Mes fire nee Graves and Miss Sarab Davis, from Wincle-ster Academy, were the only persons on board, with the exception of the color. They lest their entire wardbe, and narrowly escaped with their lives. The crew list everytimp. The cable burned off in a very short ime, but the full continued to burn for three hours beforce it filled and went down.

When the water rushed in on, the real-hot salt stored the books and papers, and three hundred dollara coin b longing to the boat, were lost, and several modest dellars be onging to the crew. She was valued a Nashville offices in $1.500, and Insured for $20,000 he was owned by Messrs. O. W. & J. Davis, and Mr. lartin, of Nashville, and cugaged in the Nashville and lew Orleans trade. THE JOB BOAT .- By referring to the advertise ment, it will be seen that the tow boat Jindge Mc-t'line has been permanently located "around the falls" for all j b work in the way of towing boats or rafts, flats or barger, coal or sugar, pork or produce, or any thing that turns up, or to help any body who wants a lift or a lighter, a tow or a pull. a Judge is always ready, and orders left with Bowser & Fultz, the clever coal dealers, at their their the on the wharf just above Fourth street, will be ; comply attended to at the cheapest rates, and u the most expeditious and scientific manner The Ju. ge McClure is one of the Durham breed short horned stock, of the "brush heap," goshead, propeller species, and can pull stronger than any propeller of twice her size.

L VINVILLE, CAIRO, AND MEMPRIS MAIL LINE.— The M see McLedau is the regular mail and pas-seng r gives tor Cairo and Memphis to day. She starts at 4 o'clock, in charge of careful officers, and win take freight and passengers to all land-ings along the route, as well as the mail landings to Cairo.

TI. T. C. Twiebell loaled cotton at Mem-Sie was lighted off by the Champion SNAGGED.-The Envoy, on her way to l'aducah from St. Louis, struck a snag at Capic Girardeau, Tuesday night. The snag pierced her forward of the boners, crusing her to leak, so that she was n danger of sinking. She will be repaired at The famous Robt. J. Ward arrived from New Orleans last evening. The Alma, Susque-hanna, and Aurora, all heavy boats, with heavy loads from New Orleans, arrived yesterday. They have sugar and mola ses in abandance for Cincinmati, and the Aurora has lots of cotton for upper ports. The Glendale, from Memphis, with up-wards of 1,000 bales of cotton, arrived yesterday. The Uncle Sam left New Orleans last esday evening for this port with a heavy n charge of Capt. Brown, left New Orleans last funday, and will be due to morrow. "A" The clipper packet Jas. Montgomery, of the Lightning Line, is due from New Orleans to mor-row night. The returns South Thursday.

Thanks to the clever clerks of the John Gault, Messrs, Reeder and Mullen, for a manifest. She reports Cumberland river at a fair navigable stage, though falling, and freights scarce, though stage, though failing, and freights scarce, though she brought out a big load, including 24,127 pieces of bulk pork. This is a portion of the piacking of Atkinson & Co, of this city, at Nashville. There were 15,564 hams in the lot, which is just the product of 7.7.52 hogs. She also brings a large lot of cracklings for Chemical to eat.

The John Gault is the regular packet for all Cumberland tiver landings on Thursday. The Dacotah, from Nashville, yesterday, Singing of a Provision Boat-Five or Six Lives Lost.-Night before last, as a provision boat was passing down the river, not far from Austin, and opposite the Harcleroads place, the steamer Eclipse passed so near her as to force the water into her, and after going some five or six miles, sunk. Our informant was at Harcleroads' at the time, and says that his negroes went to the assistance of those on board, and succeeded in saying all but five or six Irishmen who ware was carrying provisions to the hands at work on the levee. - M. mphis Bulletin.

FOR THE EAST.—The Telegraph No. 3, the long-armed champion of the Ohio, is the mail and pas-senger packet for the East, at noon to-day. She travels at railroad speed, and connects with all the early trains going East.

THE MADISON AFLOAT-STEAM UP.-We learn from the officers of the Jacob Strader that the Madison, which was sunk last week at Aurora by collision with the Iowa, was all affoat Saturday evening, and had steam up. She was lying to the shore on the Indiana side, and the river falling very opportunely, enabled workmen to reach the break in the hull, and repair it, and the Submarine alongside soon pumped her free of water.

The Madison was one of the Express Line, and we expect Cant. Housle will soon bare her of we expect Capt. Hoople will soon have her od the track again, as good as ever.

Thanks to Maj. Scott, the indefatigable mail agent on the Telegraph No. 3, for a manifest.

The Pacific, Capt. McGill, cleared for New Orleans Saturday night, with a good trip of passengers, and full of stock, including 100 head of avy beeves. Her decks were as full as they uld stick, with sheep, mules, horses and cattle. She has engaged at Akins, just above Evansville, a lot of 1,000 bags of corn at 25 cents per bag, and at Shawneetown, a lot of 500 barrels of pork.

The Peter Tellon, recently sunk in the lower Mississippi, had settled down out of sight, including the chimneys.

A MUTIAY.—We learn from the St. Louis Republican that a mutiny occurred on the Ed. Howard as she was coming up. The accordengineer and a striker got into a difficulty with the first engineer and best him. Captain Fowler put them off at island 63, and they came up to Cairo on the J. C. Swon. It is said that the mate and first pilot desired to quit the boat at Cairo, but she went on without landing.

RUMORED BURNING OF THE WM. GARVIX.—The st. Louis Republican of Saturday has the following lispatch in regard to the Wm. Garvin. She is an old boat, pretty well worn: A dispatch was received last evening, stating that the steamer Wm. Garvin had caught fire, and was hurning in sight of Cairo. The boat was run ashore, and every effort was being made to extinguish the flame; and save her.

ANOTHER.—We learn from the Cincinnati Gazette that the Messenger is about to be started in the Memphis trade. She leaves Cincinnati on CHARGE OF EXTORTION.—The Ledger has the following in regard to the way stemmers are chis-eled that land at New Albany, Ind. The charges re must say are very moderate: We understand the wharf master is in the habit of de we understand the warr master is in the hand of de-manding and receiving of the weekly, semi-weekly and trl-weekly packets double wharfage. We respectfully laylte his attention and the attention of the boats con-cerned, to the following provision of the city ordinance upon the subject, passed June 1st, 1857. Section four says:

"The wharf master shall exact from every packet beat landing weekly, one stollars per week. Landing semi-weekly, two dollars per week. Landing tri-weekly, three dollars per week.

By Torch Light .- The recent heavy fogs put he packets to their trumps to make connections, and the other night the Forest Queen, a Madison packet, had a runner on shore with a hugh iron-runned basket torch-light. The Queen followed ramed basket torch-light. The Queen followed the light, and the Telegraph No. S., coming along, followed the Queen, and they thus together mun-naged to make two or three laudings, including Lawrenceburg, where the No. 3 had a lot of sugar

Down in the Lower Mississippi, along the coast the packets are run or steered by compass. Sold Again.—The Mansfield, recently sold to parties in St. Joseph for the coal-carrying trade, has been re-sold to parties in Leavenworth, for $3,000—just about twice her value.

We learn from our Nashville exchanges that Claudin, a hand on the Lebanon, was dun gerously stabbed by Raddleton, another haud.— They fell out over their "grub," and Dr. May who had been called ou to attend the wounded nau fell over board, and came very near drown SURGEON DENTIST. WOULD inform the citizens of Louisville and its vicinity, that he has located himself here permanently, for the purpose of practicing his profession in all its various branches, after the latest and most approved style. Having practiced for the last twenty years in New Orleans, I feel confident of giving satisfaction to every one who may honor me with a call. I would call the particular attention of the public to my mode of filling teeth, which is done in such a manner as to get twice the amount of gold luto a cavity, as done in the usual way. I can, therefore, "guarantee "overy tooth plugged in such manner to be as good as if never decayed. Artificial teeth inserted—from one to an entire set—not only for beanty, but also for use, with or without suction, such as the case may require. Teeth extracted with as little pain as possible, and all other operations pertaining to dentistry.

Our Pianos have received a Premium two years in snecession, 1856 and 1857, at the Fairs of the American Institute, Crystal Palace, in competition with most of the leading manufacturers of New York and Boston, and are unquestionably of the best quality of tone, full, round, and brilliant, as well as finish and durability, and we flatter oursel es, by the approval of renowned sitists, in venturing to say that our Pianos stand superior to many others, and equal to any Grand Plano in regard to volume of tone and elasticity of touch, combined with the greatest firmness, which is very rarely met with the ther Planos.

We respectfully solicit an examination from strangers and friends, to convince themselves of the above before purchasing elsewhere. All our Planos are warranted.
